

Smart Suits FOR YOUNG MEN!

WE'VE Young Men's Ideal Suits.

Suits that are dashing and distinctive.

These Suits have a swinging grace of form with "Young Man" written all over their fashioning.

The long, soft rolling lapels—the graceful form fitting cut of the coat—the sleeves with cuff effect—the lower cut of the vest with pocket flaps, and the ease and grace of the Trousers—with or without cuffs—are a few of the principal features of the New Spring cut.

There are many other style kinks worked into these Suits by excellent and skillful Tailoring.

The fabrics are entirely new and rather striking in effect. Our prices are moderate—they are always so.

$10.00 $12.50 $15.00
to $30.00.

In Police Court—Police court was of brief duration yesterday only two cases being heard. Frank Bowerman and Joe Smith were the offenders and they were charged with begging. They pleaded guilty to the charge and were given straight sentences of 10 days each on the rock pile. George Redman, better known as the "Georgia Kid," was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy. He pleaded guilty and the court, after observing that "Salt Lake and Ogden seemed to play ball with the Kid," sustained a 99-day sentence and ordered the individual to leave town at once. Redman has been known in this city for nearly forty years and he was instructed to go to Salt Lake and to stay there the rest of his natural life.

SUSPECTED TRAIN ROBBER IN CUSTODY

Omaha, June 19—Advices have been received here of the arrest in Idaho of F. W. Marvin, believed to be the fifth man wanted for alleged connection with the Union Pacific mail robbery May 22. The arrest was the result of clues obtained from Lillian Stephens, the woman brought here from Denver with Shelton. Marvin is now in prison at Twin Falls, awaiting action by the federal authorities here.

Woods has heretofore been called the leader of the alleged bandits by the officers, but now that Marvin is under arrest, the statement is made that he was the man who directed their affairs. William Martin and William Davis are said to be among the names by which Marvin is known. The police say he is 42 years of age and has served two terms in the penitentiary. One was in Idaho or Montana for safe-blowing and the other for horse stealing at Walla Walla. He has operated for years in the Northwest.

He and Shelton are said to have boarded together while here. Marvin will be brought here for trial under the "John Doe" indictment, returned with those of the other four suspects.

WEEKLY STATEMENT OF CLEARING HOUSE BANKS

New York, June 19—Statement of clearing banks for the week shows that the banks hold $19,268,700 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent reserve rule. This is an increase of $1,453,600, in the proportionate cash reserve, as compared with last week.

DISEASE STILL RIFE.

Salt Lake, June 19—Thirty-four births were reported this week to the city board of health. Of this number 14 were males and 20 females. For the same period there were 19 deaths, 9 males and 10 females. For the same period three were sent here for burial.

The epidemic of contagious diseases is still spreading. There were six cases of smallpox, sixteen cases of scarlet fever, two cases of typhoid fever, one case of measles, eight cases of whoopingcough and three cases of chickenpox were reported. There are nineteen houses quarantined on account of smallpox, 38 houses on account of scarlet fever, three houses on account of typhoid fever, and there are seven smallpox patients in the isolation hospital.

AT THE TABERNACLE THIS AFTERNOON

Elder B. F. Hinckley of Salt Lake City will be the speaker at the Tabernacle, Sunday, services being at 2 p. m. The following musical program will be given:

- 1—Selection by Tabernacle Choir.
- 2—Selection by Tabernacle Choir.
- 3—Organ solo, Sam T. Whitaker.
- 4—Chorus, Choir.

Not Included.

After the dry goods salesman had completed his business with Cyrus Craig, Centerville's storekeeper, he asked what was going on in the town. "Had any entertainments this winter?" he inquired.

"No," said Mr. Craig, "not one. Salome Howe's pupils have given two concerts, piano and organ, and the principal of the academy has lectured twice, once on 'Our National Forests' and once on 'Stones As I Know Them'; but as far as entertainments are concerned, Centerville hasn't got round to 'em yet.'—Youth's Companion.

In Gay Paree.

"What kind of an eating house do you call this?" asked the man from Chicago as he entered a queer-looking establishment in Paris.

"This is one horse restaurant, monsieur," explained the garcon. "You can have ze horseflesh in any style. How would you like yours?"

"Horse in any style, eh? Well, suppose you have mine curried."

The Swashbuckler.

The swashbuckling patriot is akin to the religious fanatic; the one can see only his country and the other only his sect. And in both cases the intellectual outlook is generally so narrow that scarcely anything more is revealed to the patriotic or religious fanatic than a distorted view of material greatness or spiritual goodness.—Concord.

Of the Prince of Conde.

Nothing was more inviolable to the prince than the rights of friendship. When a favor was asked of him, it was he that appeared obliged; and never was his joy so natural or lively as when he conferred pleasure upon others.—Jacques Benigne Bossuet.

OPEN LETTER TO PEOPLE OF UTAH

To the People of Ogden—Ostensibly the investigation which is taking place at the industrial school is to determine Mr. Thomas' fitness to fill the position he occupies. In reality, and of necessity, the entire management, including the board, are on trial with Mr. Thomas.

That this is keenly appreciated by some of the members of the board is attested by the efforts made to develop the fact that witnesses to the brutal treatment of inmates failed to report the same to the board. One witness, at the instance of Rabbi Freund, was called upon to define her reluctance and hesitation up to the present time as cowardice.

The fact that the complainants did not go to the board shows their good sense—if the board did not know those things it must have been wilfully, dumb, blind and heartless.

"He takes my life who takes the means whereby I live." Before judgment is passed on the acts of those in employment it is only just to look to the manner of men who are in power. Why wait it that, when the citizens present and a majority of the investigating committee desired to change the place of meeting to the city hall and obtained the governor's consent, that the meetings were continued at the school? The syrup which was sampled, and the "padding" which was not, could have been conveniently removed to the city hall.

Signed) EUGENE A. BATTELL.

Knowledge.

Knowledge is like a current coin. A man is partly justified in feeling proud to possess it, if he himself worked on the gold and tried to coin it, or at least, if he honestly obtained it as already tried and tested. But when he did not do anything, but simply received it from some passer-by who had thrown it at his face, what ground has he then to be proud of it?—John Ruskin.
